

ANNUAL ROAD TRAFFIC AND TRANSPORT LEGISLATION WORKSHOP 2018

VENUES:

22 May 2018 – Stellenbosch (Spier)

24 May 2018 – Durban (Garden Court, Marine Parade / OR Tambo Parade)

30 May 2018 – Pretoria (CSIR Convention Centre)

PROGRAM

07:30 – 08:30	REGISTRATION
08:30 – 08:35	Welcome	Max Braun
08:35 – 10:30	Update on Road Traffic and Transport Legislation. The latest developments on the National Road Traffic Act and Regulations, AARTO, the National Land Transport legislation.	Alta Swanepoel (Alta Swanepoel & Associates)
10:30 – 11:00	TEA AND COFFEE
11:00 – 12:00	The Operator Compliance Scheme for Cross-border Road Transport Operators (OCAS). An intelligent risk-based road safety tool for certifying and licensing compliant commercial road transport operators. OCAS is founded based on safety management systems as championed in the United Nations Decade of Action for Road Safety.	Ronald Stuurman (Executive Manager: Regulatory Services CBRTA)
12:00 – 13:00	The impact of Road Traffic legislation on insurance contracts. The effects of non-compliance with the road traffic legislation and how it impacts on insurance contracts and accident claims. Recommendations on minimising the risk of claim repudiations.	Stan Bezuidenhout Forensic Collision Homicide Reconstructionist (IBF Investigations)
13:00 – 14:00	LUNCH
14:00 – 14:30	Observations from the Left Lane. An eclectic opinion reviews the threat of speeding vehicles. What are we doing about it? How effectively are we managing this menace?	Max Braun (MB Consulting Services)
14:30 – 15:30	The grey areas in the legislation on the transportation of Dangerous Goods An update on the latest developments in the transportation of dangerous goods and the grey areas in the legislation and specifications and its impact on the industry.	Keith McMurray (DG Consult)
15:30	CLOSURE	Max Braun